(54) MULTIMEDIA BUSINESS CARD INFORMATION DEVICE

(57)Abstract:

PURPOSE: To offer a multimedia business card information device for giving deep impression information to a person receiving a business card by means of character image information, video information, or voice information to be time-sequentially and spatially fixed or varied.

CONSTITUTION: An information forming part 1 forms multimedia information such as character image information, video information and voice information to be time-sequentially and spatially fixed or varied to express person or a company, group, etc., to which the person belongs. These information is recorded/stored in record storing parts 5, 9 and semiconductor memory 8 until a retrieving, output expression or exchanging request is outputted, and when retrieval or exchange is required, the information is respectively retrieved/exchanged by a control part 7 and multimedia exchanging parts 6, 10. The multimedia information is outputted/expressed to an output expressing part 11 in accordance with an output request.
